ABOUT

Born in Northern California | Joined the Army with the intent of becoming a physician | Loved being a combat medic with multiple deployments | A veteran and an Army Wife - my better half, Michael, retired after 21 years of service | Would live in Alaska if DEA would let me

EDUCATION

University of Virginia
Bachelor of Science - Chemistry ('06)
Johns Hopkins University
Master of Science - Biotechnology ('10)

EXPERIENCE

A scientist turned senior policy advisor for the DEA with over 15 years experience | Worked in both drugs of abuse and chemical weapons with the Department of the Army before joining DOJ | Scientific career started at John Hopkins University, working in immunology and allergy research

PROUD MOMENTS

Attorney General's Meritorious Contribution Award
Golden Rose Award Recipient
Earned Expert Field Medical Badge as a Private

REASON FOR JOINING: We moved to Fawn Lake looking for our forever home and with it we found our forever community. Considering that to the Laughery's there is no space between a community and being a veteran, becoming member's of the FLVG happened without hesitation.
